

Concept Question 9-11: What is the gain roll-off rate?

The gain roll-off rate denotes the rate at which the transfer function at frequencies well beyond the corner frequency. The roll-off rate is measured in dB level change per decade change in ω . For the single pole shown here, the roll-off rate is -20 dB/decade.

